NELLIE HILBERT IS DEAD; THIRD VICTIM IN A WEEK

Death Followed Alleged Criminal Practice and the Police Search for Mrs. Schott-Coroner Goldenkranz Making Investigation.

For the third time within a week the Coroner's office has been called upon to investigate the death of a young woman following alleged criminal practice. The latest victim is Nellie Hilbert, who lived with her widowed sister, Mrs. Shea, at No. 1751 First avenue.

The girl died last night at the Presbyterian Hospital, and Mes M. Schott, a practitioner at No. 229 East Righty-seventh street, whence the gir! was removed to the hospital, is being sought by the police.

When the hospital physicians discov ered the cause of the girl's illness a telegram was sent to her sister and Coroner Goldenkranz was notified. Before he reached the hospital to take her ante-mortem statement the girl was un-

Coroner's office before. Nellie Hilbert was twenty-eight years old. She lived with her sister Mrs. Schea, another sister and her brother, Pease Hilbert, a policeman. Last summer she took a place with a wealthy family at Bay Shore, Long Island. When she came up to the city to visit her sister she spoke of the pleasant life she was leading, telling of the attention paid her by many young men at the repaid her by many young men at the resort. One man in particular, named "Alfred," she spoke of as having taken her frequently for buggy rides.

Last February she returned to her sister's home, complaining that her health was broken. She went to Dr. Frederic Wulhelm, the family physician, and was treated by him for kidney trouble.

Last Thursday she left home, saying she had to return to Bay Shore, but would be back Sunday. Nothing more was heard of her until the telegram announced that she was dying in the Presbyterian Hospital.

On the blotter of the East Eightyeighth street station is an entry telling that "Neille Hilbert," twenty-eight, sick and destitute, "had been removed Monday from No. 228 East Eighty-eventh street to the Presbyterian Hospital."
